

Kaitlyn Paik

Topic Choice

For my final project for DES157, I am going to make an advising website for the department. I've worked as a peer advisor for the department for the past two years and I've noticed that during registration periods, we cannot consistently provide enough face to face advising to students trying to make schedules for themselves.